

Weekly News Letter

6 March 2009

Dear Parents,

Well, we had snow again. This time I think Axminster had more snow than Honiton! I took the decision to open the school based on the fact I and most of my staff could get in and so the children would be adequately supervised. Naturally, it is then the decision of each parent as to whether it is safe for you to travel and we would never want you to put yourself in any danger.

As well as the snow yesterday, the news about the fire at the Baptist Church was a great shock to us all. I know you would all like me to express our thoughts, prayers and support to Rev Holmes and his family.

The World Book Day Tokens are coming out with this letter. As we didn't have everyone in school yesterday we delayed sending them out until today.

We have a quantity of Red Noses in school ready for this coming Friday. They will be on sale each day at playtime in the morning for a donation of £1 for each nose. Also don't forget it is a non-uniform day as well and for £1 the children can come in anything 'clown like' and a wacky hairstyle for £1. Our 'Wacky Hair Salon' will be operating for 50p!

Also on Friday 13 March it is our termly Celebratory Assembly starting at 2.45pm in the Village Hall. Yarty Class will be taking the lead.

Don't forget the PTFA Meeting this coming Wednesday 11 March at 7pm in Coly Class.

Next Thursday 12 March, Years 5 and 6 will be going to a Tag Rugby Festival at Colyton Grammar School. They will be leaving by coach at 10am and will be returned to school at 2.45pm. Our aim is to put one 'Competitive Team' in and one 'Friendly Team' in. The 'Competitive Team' have a chance of winning through to the East Devon Finals later this term. The children will need to bring a packed lunch, full water bottle and snack for the day and be in their school PE Kits.
