Weekly Newsletter

23 October, 2009

Dear Parents,

I hope you have a lovely half-term break and will see you on Monday, 2 November.

As you see, for once, a short letter but with this letter is one for Axe Class with regard to swimming for the coming half-term.

For those children in the choir: below is the programme for the Concert Day Saturday, 7 November at Exeter Cathedral.

- |             |   |
|-------------|---|
| 2pm         | Children should arrive and will be allocated space in the performing area.  |
| 2:30 approx | Rehearsals begin with opportunities for schools to rehearse their individual items as well as the songs involving everyone. Procedures for getting 'on and off' stage will also need to be rehearsed. |
| 3:45        | Rehearsal ends and a break. (Children may wish to bring some refreshments.)   |
| 4:20        | All performers to get into their position 'offstage'.   |
| 4:30        | Concert. This will last approx. 50 minutes so children should be free to go at around 5:30pm.   |

As you have to take your children, hopefully, this will help you plan your day.

From the PTFA

Please remember that the first Friday after half-term, 6 November, is non-uniform in exchange for a donation towards the Christmas Hamper Raffle. There are lists on each classroom door for you to pick an item to donate.

The quiz that took place last Sunday at the Old Inn raised a total of £214.70. Four teams tied for first place and after a 'tie breaker' "Give it a go" won. Thank you for all your support.

Yours sincerely,

Malcolm Bettison
